

A new foundation unit and Nursery Extension at Melbury Primary School in Aspley for Nottingham City Council

We aimed to add an extension that punched above its weight to try and lift the dower existing buildings.

The classrooms had open ceilings inside with exposed timber beams.

We specified organically based paints and stains throughout to initiate a sustainability agenda for the school

