

peart bradley architects

A bold 2 storey extension that filled in a dark rear yard area. We used roof lights and tall windows as part of the design to add grandeur and light

It opens up inside to form a large kitchen dining area with links to existing spaces.

The client sought a Venetian theme which is developed in a contemporary way with a stone floor, an iron balcony, stained glass and a Murano chandelier